

Description:

Departure: From 10am to 12pm from Sapa town

For those who like adventures, challenges and stunning landscape views, this trek is for you. Hmong people know perfectly the way to bring you from Sapa to the top of mountains with breathtaking views of the surrounding.

You will trek up to see Fansipang peak, the impressive Muong Hoa Valley with its rice fields and villages.

At the same time, you will walk through Hmong villages who will lives up there and see their daily life and customs.

After this challenging day, you will arrive in Zizi Homestay when you could relax and watch the sunset before enjoying the delicious family dinner cooked by Zizi.

A taxi will bring you back to Sapa after.

Our English speaking Hmong guide will accompany you to explain more about the villages and the Hmong culture.

This trek can be customized above request.

[The pictures are taken by our guest]

Included:

English speaking Hmong guide, Entrance fees for the valley, 2 meals (lunch and dinner), 1 big bottle of water/pax, taxi back to Sapa

Excluded:

Other beverages, personal expenses, travel insurance

Price:

Nb of persons	1	2	3	4-5	6 and more
Price/ pax	$39	$28	$24	$22	$20

(-$3/pax without the family dinner)

The benefits will help to improve the conditions of Hmong people and to develop the education of the children in their village