

Description

SAPA- Y LINH HO – LAO CHAI SAN – TA VAN – HAU THAO – SAPA

Departure from Sapa Town, in front of the church at 9.30am

In the old times, Hmong people like Zizi hiked to Sapa market from their village. Now, this path has become a must-do trek.

During this one day trek, you will have great overview of the main villages and walk through rice paddies.

At the end of the trek, you will arrive in Hau Thao village where Zizi's family lives. From there, you can enjoy the breathtaking view and explore the village.

If you want, you can also join us for the family dinner cooked by Zizi Homestay.

Our English speaking Hmong guide will accompany you to explain more about the story of this path, the life in the village and the Hmong culture.

A taxi will bring you back to Sapa.

Included:

English speaking guide, Entrance fees for the valley, 2 meals (lunch and dinner), 1 big bottle of water/pax, taxi back to Sapa

Excluded:

Other beverages, personal expenses, travel insurance

Price:

Nb of persons	1	2	3	4-5	6 and more
Price/ pax	$37	$27	$23	$21	$19

(-$3/pax without the family dinner)

The benefits will help to improve the conditions of Hmong people and to develop the education of the children in their village